(“POPIA”)

THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT, 2 OF 2000 (AS AMENDED)

The purpose of PAIA is to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. PAIA was enacted in order to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public and private bodies by giving effect to the right of access to information and in order to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect all of their rights.

PAIA applies to records of a private body, which records are defined in section 1 of PAIA as any recorded information, regardless of form or medium, in the possession or under the control of the private body and whether or not it was created by that private body.

Our firm is a private body as defined in section 1 of PAIA.

In terms of section 50 of PAIA, a requester must be given access to any record of the private body if that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights, the requester complies with the requirements relating to a request for access to the record and access to the record is not refused on any ground(s) contemplated in chapter 4 of PAIA (sections 62-70), namely:

- Mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is a natural person;
- Mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party;
- Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party;
- Mandatory protection of safety of individuals and protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
- Commercial information of a private body;
- Mandatory protection of research information of a third party, and protection of research information of private body;
- Mandatory disclosure in public interest.

APPLICATION OF POPIA – SECTION 51(1)(c) OF PAIA

In terms of POPIA, our firm is a Responsible Party who determines the purpose of and means for processing of personal information of data subjects as defined in section 1 of POPIA. Whereas our firm's obligations under POPIA are addressed in our Privacy Policy (available on our website www.bissetts.com), under PAIA we are required to deal with certain aspects of data processing in this Manual.

PURPOSE OF PROCESSING – SECTION 51(1)(c)(i) OF PAIA

In order to interact with data subjects, to fulfil contractual obligations, to provide assistance, to comply with all legal obligations imposed on us and/or in instances in which our firm pursues a legitimate interest, it is necessary for our firm to process personal information.

Our firm may process personal information of data subjects for various reasons, including, but not limited to, the following:

- to address enquiries and to follow up on leads on prospective clients;
- to provide legal services to clients;
- to give effect to mandates from clients;
- to give effect to contracts with third parties/operators;
- to give effect to employment contracts with our staff;
- to give effect to and manage our relationships with suppliers;
- for purposes of recruitment;
- to obtain or provide quotations;

- in the administration of our website and social media platforms (Facebook, LinkedIn, WhatsApp);
- to maintain employment records, to comply with labour, tax, pension fund and other applicable legislation and to give effect to employment agreements;
- to comply with applicable overarching legislation (such as the Financial Intelligence Centre Act).

Any objection to the processing of personal information by our firm in terms of section 11(3) of POPIA should be made in the prescribed form as set out in annexure “A” hereto and submitted to our Information Officer by hand or e-mail.

Any request for the correction or deletion of personal information or for the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information in terms of section 24(1) of POPIA should be made in the prescribed form as set out in annexure “B” hereto and submitted to our Information Officer by hand or e-mail.

CATEGORIES OF DATA SUBJECTS – SECTION 51(1)(c)(ii) OF PAIA

It is anticipated that our firm may process the following types of data of the various categories of data subjects listed below.

Category of Data Subjects	Information Processed
Individuals (clients, potential clients, other)	Name, surname, Identity Number or passport number, date of birth, age, marital status, citizenship, telephone numbers, e-mail address, physical and postal addresses, income tax number, financial information, banking information (including account numbers), FICA documentation, CCTV footage, etc.
Juristic persons (clients, potential clients, other)	Entity name, registration number, director/member/accountant/auditor/liquidator details, tax-related information, contact details for representatives, banking information (including account numbers), FICA documentation, VAT registration details, etc.

Partners and employees of the firm	Name, surname, Identity Number or passport number, contact details, physical and postal address, date of birth, age, marital status, race, disability information, employment history, criminal background checks, CV, education history, banking details, income tax reference number, remuneration and benefit information, pension fund information, health information, details related to performance, disciplinary procedure information, CCTV footage, etc.
Third party operators and suppliers	Company registration details, Identity Numbers / passport numbers, BBBEE certificates, tax clearance, income tax and VAT registration details, payment information including bank account numbers, invoices, contractual agreements, Fidelity Fund certificates, addresses, contact details, CCTV footage, etc.
Potential employees/jobseekers	Name, surname, Identity Number or passport number, contact details, physical and postal address, date of birth, age, marital status, race, disability information, employment history, criminal background checks, CV, education history, CCTV footage, etc.

RECIPIENTS/CATEGORIES OF RECIPIENTS – SECTION 51(1)(c)(iii) OF PAIA

In the course and scope of our interactions or relationships with various parties/persons (data subjects) personal information may be transferred to and stored by third parties and/or operators, who may be local or foreign.

Where the personal information of a data subject is entrusted to a third party (operator) by our firm we are required under POPIA to enter into a written agreement with the operator to ensure that adequate security measures are established and maintained by the operator in relation to the integrity and confidentiality of the data subject's personal information.

PLANNED TRANSBORDER FLOWS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION – SECTION 51(1)(c)(iv) OF PAIA

Where personal information is transferred to or stored by a third party and/or operator in a foreign country by our firm we undertake to do all that is reasonably possible to ensure that the level of protection afforded to the personal information shall be at least that provided by us within the prescripts of any data protection laws (including POPIA) applicable in the Republic of South Africa.

SECURITY SAFEGUARDS – SECTION 51(1)(c)(v) OF PAIA

Our firm secures the integrity and confidentiality of personal information in our possession or under our control by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent loss of, damage to or unauthorised destruction of personal information and unlawful access to or processing of personal information. Our firm takes all reasonable measures to ensure that personal information is processed securely, including but not limited to:

- restricting physical and digital access to personal information to those authorised to be in possession thereof;
- entering into written agreements with third parties/operators to whom personal information is entrusted by us to ensure that it receives adequate protection;
- installing anti-virus and anti-ransomware software on its servers, desktops and laptops, which are password protected, and ensuring that all software is updated on a daily basis; and

- ensuring that we regularly revise our security strategies and safeguards to prevent unauthorised access to personal information.

REQUESTING ACCESS TO A RECORD – SECTION 53 OF PAIA

A request for access to a record must be made in the prescribed form as set out in annexure “C” hereto. All requests are to be addressed to our firm’s Information Officer and delivered to our physical address or transmitted by fax or e-mail.

FEES PAYABLE – SECTION 54 OF PAIA

A data subject has the right to request our firm to confirm, without charge, if our firm holds personal information about the data subject as prescribed in terms of POPIA.

All requests for access to records are subject to the following prescribed fees:

- a request fee, being an administrative fee payable prior to the processing of a request; and
- an access fee, being a fee relating to the costs of reproduction of the record, payable prior to the reproduction of the record.

Should the search for and preparation of a requested record, in the opinion of our firm, require more than the hours prescribed for this purpose in terms of the Regulations to PAIA then payment of a deposit may be requested by us. This deposit shall not exceed one third of the access fee which will be payable if the request is granted. The requester may approach the Information Regulator or the court, where applicable, should the need for payment of a deposit be disputed.

A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted must pay an access fee for the reproduction of, search for and preparation of the record and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure, including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form.

A schedule of the prescribed request and access fees as at date of preparation of this Manual is annexed hereto marked annexure "D".

APPLICABLE TIME PERIODS FOR REQUESTS – SECTIONS 56(1) AND 57(1) OF PAIA

As soon as reasonably possible, but not longer than 30 (thirty) days after a request for a record has been received by us, our firm shall provide the requester with its decision on whether or not to grant such request.

The aforesaid period of 30 (thirty) days may be extended by a further period not exceeding 30 (thirty) days as provided for in terms of section 57(1) of PAIA.

DECISION ON REQUEST – SECTIONS 56(2) TO (3) AND 58 OF PAIA

If a request for access to a record is granted our firm shall provide the requester with written notice of the access fee payable and the form in which access will be provided.

If a request for access to a record is denied our firm shall provide written reasons for refusal, which shall exclude reference to the content of the record.

Should our firm fail to provide a requester with a decision within the time periods stipulated in PAIA a request should be regarded as having been refused.

Any written notice provided by our firm in response to a request shall set out the procedure to be followed by the requester to lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or make application to court based on the outcome of our decision.

GROUND FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS – SECTIONS 62 TO 70 OF PAIA

As stated above, our firm may refuse access to records on the grounds listed in chapter 4 of PAIA.

However, despite the provisions of chapter 4, our firm must grant a request for access to a record held by us if the disclosure of the record would reveal evidence of a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law, or imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk and the public interest in the disclosure of the record clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by the ground(s) for refusal.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED BY REQUESTER – SECTIONS 77A AND 78 OF PAIA

A requester or any other interested party aggrieved by a decision relating to the refusal of a request for access, the fee payable, the extension of the period to deal with a request or the form of access may, where permissible, submit a complaint to the Information Regulator. This complaint should be submitted within 180 (one hundred and eighty) days of our firm's decision.

A requester or other interested party may, after exhausting the complaints procedure laid out in 77A of PAIA and who is aggrieved by any decision made by our firm or the Information Regulator may, within 180 (one hundred and eighty) days, apply to court for appropriate relief as provided for in terms of section 82 of PAIA.

AVAILABILITY AND UPDATING OF THIS MANUAL – SECTION 51(2) TO (3) OF PAIA

The Information Officer shall ensure that this Manual is updated on a regular basis.

This Manual shall be made available on our website (www.bissets.com), at our physical offices during normal business hours or to any person upon the payment of a reasonable amount for a physical copy thereof. This Manual shall also be made available to the Information Regulator upon request.

Signed at Cape Town on this 21ST day of JULY 2025.
